

Information Technology Guidelines 2017

The 2017 Information Technology Systems will not involve hands-on procedures but will be all computer based where contestants demonstrate their knowledge and skills in the area of Information Technology Systems.

Skill/Test

Information Technology Services contestants must bring two forms of identification. This ID is required for you to take the CompTIA A+ Certification exams, which are a key part of the contest. The recommended ID is a driver's license and anything else, such as a student ID, credit/debit card, social security card, etc. Computer based simulation of A+ hardware and software test. (150 questions)